

1. Die-cut the background heart and the dimensional heart out of desired materials.

2. Fold the dimensional heart along the vertical crease lines, and adhere the center of the dimensional heart to the background. The perimeter of the dimensional heart may also be adhered to the background so the inside can fold up.